

Concord Weekend Backpack Program

(Contact Sue Pedersen at 524-6517 with questions.)

Concord Community School pre-K-8th grade students who are food insecure are eligible for a weekly backpack full of free, easily used, wholesome food furnished by Concord Food for Thought's Weekend Backpack Program. The backpacks are sent home from school each Friday during the school year beginning late in September. They are filled with kid-friendly food items such as fruit cups, canned vegetables and lunches, cereal, juice boxes, microwave meals, etc. All items are individually pre-packaged and ready to eat or microwave.

The Weekend Backpack Program is strictly voluntary and confidential. The family of any K-8 Concord student who is at risk of missing weekend meals at home is encouraged to enroll. To become a part of the program parents must sign and return this form to either the elementary or middle school secretary OR sign up on the Weekend Backpack section of the Free/Reduced lunch online application. If you have signed up in either place and have not received a letter confirming that your child or children is/are a part of the program by the third week in September, please contact Mr. Lehman at the phone number above.
